Progress Check

1. Complete the text. Choose the right word below.

I always wanted to work. I had dreams of earning my own money and I had ambitions. So after my ___(1), I left school. I didn't think about a higher education. All I wanted was to go out into the world, feel ___(2) and start working.

One of the valuable lessons I learned at school was how to write a ___(3). I dug up some examples from my old textbooks and compiled my ___(3). I must have given out about 20 copies to local supermarkets, coffee shops, offices and so on.

After 2 weeks of waiting, I got a positive reply and so my first job was filing documents as an office junior. Then my dad offered me a job to help him out at his bakery. He was getting very busy and needed some ___(4) help. I was producing food for our local community, meeting new people, ___(5) friends and feeling useful. I am now the manager of our shop.
